Event Report – Dr. B. R. Ambedkar Jayanti

Department: NSS

Academic Year: 2023-24

Date: 14/04/2023

NSS ZCOER Unit A122 proudly celebrated Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar Jayanti, honoring the birth anniversary of Dr. Bhimrao Ramji Ambedkar, the chief architect of the Indian Constitution and a stalwart advocate for social justice. The event aimed to spread awareness of Dr. Ambedkar's profound legacy and guiding principles while fostering a spirit of unity and progress among participants.

The program commenced with a solemn inauguration ceremony, including the Pratima Pujan, where Prof. Shid Sir garlanded Dr. Ambedkar's portrait, paying tribute to his monumental contributions. This was followed by an inspiring speech highlighting Dr. Ambedkar's journey, achievements, and his unwavering commitment to equality and social reform.

A series of activities were organized to mark the occasion. NSS volunteers facilitated interactive sessions and panel discussions on Dr. Ambedkar's ideology, emphasizing his principles of social justice, the importance of education, and the need for inclusivity in society. These thought-provoking sessions encouraged meaningful dialogue and reflection on contemporary social challenges and inspired attendees to uphold his vision.

Adding to the celebration, a cultural program was conducted featuring performances that showcased India's rich diversity and the values Dr. Ambedkar championed. Poetry recitations, skits, and songs depicted his life and his enduring message of equality and empowerment.

As part of its commitment to community service, NSS ZCOER Unit A122 organized impactful outreach initiatives. These included health camps, cleanliness drives, and educational awareness campaigns in neighboring communities. Volunteers worked tirelessly to address socio-economic challenges and spread Dr. Ambedkar's vision of a just and equitable society.

Event Report – Tree Conservation

Department: NSS

Academic Year: 2023-24

Date: 23/04/2023

On 23th April, NSS Volunteers of Unit A-122 assembled at Swaminarayan Tekadi at 7:00 AM to carry out their regular tree care activities. This initiative is part of their ongoing efforts to nurture and maintain the trees planted earlier by the unit. The primary objective was to ensure the healthy growth of the trees by addressing key maintenance tasks. Volunteers worked diligently, removing the overgrown grass around the trees using appropriate tools. This step was crucial to prevent the grass from consuming water and nutrients meant for the trees. Additionally, the plants were watered to sustain their growth during the dry conditions of summer.

The activity is a regular part of the NSS unit's environmental care schedule. Volunteers have been performing this task every Sunday and several Thursdays throughout the summer, showcasing their unwavering dedication to ecological preservation. These consistent efforts play a vital role in ensuring the survival and thriving of the planted trees.

At the conclusion of the day's work, the volunteers gathered together to enjoy snacks, reflecting on their contributions and the impact of their efforts. The event wrapped up successfully at 10:00 AM, leaving the Tekadi a step closer to flourishing greenery.

Event Report – Cleanliness drive on Gandhi Jayanti

Department: NSS

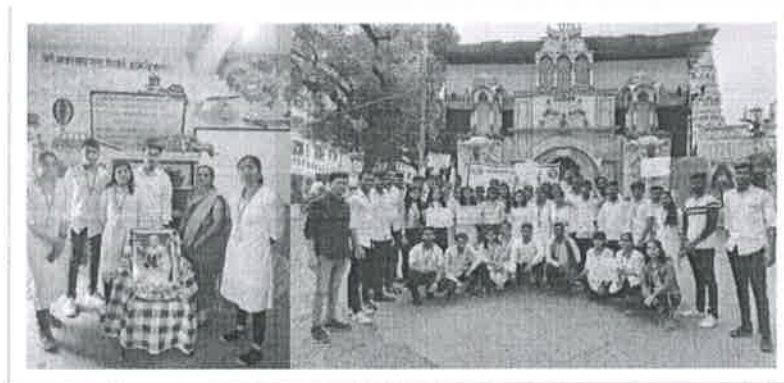

Academic Year: 2023-24

Date: 2/11/2023

On October 2, 2023, the National Service Scheme (NSS) Unit A-122 organized a vibrant celebration of "SavchataMohim" (Cleanliness Campaign) to commemorate the birth anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi, fondly known as the Father of the Nation. The event emphasized the importance of cleanliness and hygiene, aiming to instill a sense of responsibility among community members toward maintaining a clean and healthy environment.

As part of the campaign, NSS volunteers conducted a cleanliness drive in the surrounding areas of the institution. Teams were formed, and designated zones were assigned to ensure a thorough and systematic cleaning effort. The active participation of both volunteers and community members played a key role in the event's success, fostering a spirit of collective responsibility and community engagement.

The celebration of "SavchataMohim" by NSS Unit A-122 was a resounding success, reinforcing the significance of individual efforts in creating a cleaner society. This initiative not only honoured the principles of Mahatma Gandhi but also inspired participants to take active steps toward a sustainable and hygienic future

Event Report – 42nd Fruits and Flowers Exhibition in Association with PMC Pune

Department: NSS

Academic Year: 2023-24

Date: 11/02/2024

On February 10th and 11th, 2024, NSS Volunteers from Zeal College of Engineering and Research (ZCOER) actively participated in the 42nd Fruits and Flowers Exhibition, organized in association with the Pune Municipal Corporation (PMC). The exhibition served as a platform to showcase the beauty and diversity of fruits, flowers, and plants, while promoting horticultural practices among the public.

NSS students volunteered on both days of the event, playing an essential role in its smooth functioning. Their responsibilities included guiding visitors through the exhibition, providing detailed information about the exhibits, and ensuring a welcoming and informative experience. Additionally, volunteers were involved in the registration of visitors, ensuring that each participant was properly logged in for the event. They also helped with the collection of feedback, gathering valuable insights from attendees to improve future events.

The participation of NSS volunteers not only contributed to the success of the exhibition but also provided them with valuable experience in event management and public interaction.

A special thank you is extended to NSS Program Officer, Mr. Karande A.V., for his leadership and guidance throughout the event. Appreciation is also due to Principal Dr. K. Kate A.M. for their continuous support, which played a key role in the successful organization of this event. This collaboration between NSS and PMC Pune reinforced the importance of environmental awareness, while showcasing the dedication and teamwork of the volunteers.

Event Report – Contribution on Shiv Jayanti: Collection of Soil from Seven Forts

Department: NSS

Academic Year: 2023-24

Date: 13/02/2024

On the occasion of Shiv Jayanti, NSS volunteers from Zeal College of Engineering and Research (ZCOER) organized a meaningful and impactful initiative to honour the legacy of Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj. In celebration of the great warrior's birth, the volunteers collected soil from seven forts in Pune district that bear the sacred footprints of Shivaji Maharaj. The soil was collected from the following forts, each holding significant historical importance: 1 Raigad 2 Sinhgad 3 Torana 4 Tikona 5 Lohgad 6 Tung 7 Visapur

After collecting the soil, the volunteers engaged with the local community by asking for donations of socially useful items and woollen items for those in need. These items were gathered and will be distributed to the less fortunate members of society, further emphasizing the importance of charity and service to others.

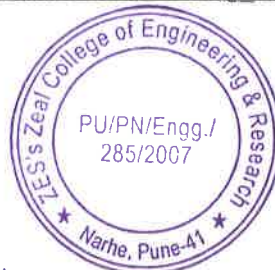

This initiative not only served as a tribute to Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj but also promoted social welfare and the spirit of giving among the community. The poster accompanying this report highlights the various forts visited by the volunteers, showing their dedication and the significance of the places they paid homage to.

We would like to express our sincere gratitude to the NSS Program Officer, Mr. Karande A.V., for his continuous support and guidance, which made this initiative possible. We also extend our heartfelt thanks to the Zeal College of Engineering and Research for providing the platform and resources to carry out such an impactful event. Finally, we are deeply thankful to the community members and volunteers who contributed by donating valuable items for the cause, making this event a resounding success

Event Report – "Visapur Fort Conservation and Preservation" Workshop

Department: NSS

Academic Year: 2023-24

Date: 13/02/2024

On February 12th and 13th, 2024, two NSS volunteers from Zeal College of Engineering and Research, Pune, Gaurav Rasne and Dipali Shinde, attended a two-day workshop titled "Visapur Fort Conservation and Preservation" held at Visapur Fort, located in Malavli, Taluka Maval, Pune district. The workshop was organized by Savitribai Phule Pune University, the National Service Scheme (NSS) Department, and Tikarambhau Jagannath Arts, Commerce, and Science College, Khadki, Pune.

The primary objective of the workshop was to raise awareness about the importance of conserving and preserving historical monuments, particularly the Visapur Fort, which holds significant historical and cultural value. The event brought together experts, volunteers, and enthusiasts to discuss various strategies for protecting the fort and ensuring its sustainability for future generations.

During the workshop, the participants learned about the fort's rich history, the challenges it faces in terms of conservation, and the methods used to preserve such heritage sites. It also provided the volunteers an opportunity to engage in hands-on activities aimed at promoting conservation efforts and protecting the fort from environmental degradation.

Gaurav Rasne and Dipali Shinde, as part of the NSS unit, contributed their efforts to the event, gaining valuable knowledge and experience related to heritage conservation. Their participation in this workshop reflects their commitment to community service and the preservation of local heritage.

A heartfelt thank you is extended to Zeal College of Engineering and Research (ZCOER) for providing the opportunity to participate in such an enriching event, and to NSS Program Officer, Mr. Karande A.V., for his continuous support and guidance. Their encouragement played a crucial role in enabling the volunteers to take part in this important initiative.

This workshop served as a platform for increasing awareness and encouraging young people to take an active role in safeguarding India's historical landmarks.

Event Report – Mera Pehla Vote, Desh Ke Liye" Pledge and Live Quiz

Department: NSS

Academic Year: 2023-24

Date: 06/3//2024

On March 6th, 2024, the NSS volunteers and students of Zeal College of Engineering and Research (ZCOER) participated in an important initiative to encourage civic engagement and awareness about India's democracy. The event was centered on the campaign "Mera Pehla Vote, Desh Ke Liye" (My First Vote for the Nation), where students took the pledge to contribute to the nation's democratic process by casting their first vote when eligible.

Alongside the pledge-taking, the volunteers also organized a live quiz on "India's Democracy" to test the participants' knowledge of India's electoral process, history, and political structure. The quiz aimed to engage students and increase their awareness about the importance of voting and their role in shaping the future of the nation.

For those interested in taking the pledge, the link to participate is:

Event Report – Blood Donation Drive - International Women's Day

Department: NSS

Academic Year: 2023-24

Date: 10/3//2024

On March 9th, 2024, in celebration of International Women's Day, Zeal College of Engineering and Research (ZCOER) NSS Unit successfully organized a Blood Donation Drive to promote the significance of blood donation and to empower women in health-related causes. The event was a resounding success, reflecting the spirit of service, compassion, and community support.

The event was held in association with Sassoon Government Hospital (Blood Bank), which generously provided its support in facilitating the blood donation process. The hospital's collaboration ensured that the drive was conducted smoothly, with all necessary medical protocols in place for the safety and well-being of the donors.

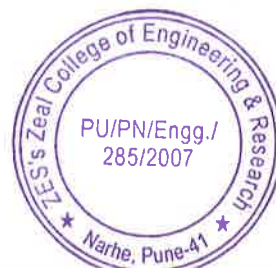

NSS volunteers played an integral role in the event, assisting in organizing and managing the drive. Their responsibilities included:

- Awareness and Coordination: Volunteers effectively communicated the importance of blood donation to students and staff, encouraging them to participate in the drive. They coordinated with participants, ensuring that the donation process was seamless and well-organized.
- Registration and Setup: Volunteers managed the registration of donors, explaining the process and preparing them for the blood donation. They worked closely with hospital staff to ensure the area was equipped and safe for the event.
- Monitoring and Support: Volunteers ensured that the donors were comfortable before, during, and after their donation, offering refreshments and emotional support when necessary.

The Sassoon Government Hospital (Blood Bank) provided all the required medical support, with their trained professionals handling the blood collection. They ensured the highest standards of hygiene and care were maintained throughout the event.

Thanks to the collective efforts of the volunteers and the collaboration with Sassoon Hospital, the Blood Donation Drive was a success. It helped in raising awareness about the importance of regular blood donation, not just as an act of kindness, but as a crucial part of saving lives in medical emergencies.

The NSS Unit would like to extend a heartfelt thank you to all the volunteers who
